

A Deeper Look at Local Energy Efficiency Incentives

Tuesday, February 26, 2013
7:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m.

Raymond E. Maritz Theater
Maritz Corporation
1400 South Highway Drive
Fenton, MO 63099

Learn about the energy efficiency incentives from Ameren Missouri and Laclede Gas that can lower the cost of raising the performance of your building with:

Tom Nigh, Ameren Missouri, Business Development Lead

Jim Travis, Laclede Gas Company, Project Support Specialist, Utilization Engineering

This event is free, but registration is required

Go to the U.S. Green Building Council – Missouri Gateway Chapter website at:

<http://www.usgbc-mogateway.org/2013/01/a-deeper-look-at-local-efficiency-incentives/>

The St. Louis High Performance Building Initiative is a regional project organized by the St. Louis Regional Chamber and Growth Association and the U.S. Green Building Council – Missouri Gateway Chapter, plus 19 additional building, design, and real estate stakeholders. Its mission is to increase the square footage of third-party verified green space in the St. Louis region. For more information, visit <http://stlhighperformbldg.org>

